Welcome to Morocco! Let the adventure begin!

ARRIVAL AT CASABLANCA AIRPORT

Upon arrival you will be met by VIP services. Please look out for the representative holding your name board as you leave the aircraft.

They will assist through customs & with your luggage and will liaise with your driver for a seamless transition out of the terminal and to your car, where your driver will be waiting to transfer you to our hotel.

Enjoy a relaxing afternoon around the pool or in the spa at our boutique accommodation, before we all celebrate the adventure ahead at our welcome dinner.

Accommodation: Le Casablanca Hotel

Notes

Dinner included

After a delicious breakfast on the pool terrace, we'll take in the sights of Casablanca with our amazing private guide, re-living the French-colonial days amongst the wide boulevards & traditional Moorish design of this white city. We'll visit the majestic Hassan II Mosque a sight to behold, from the towering minaret to the awe-inspiring tiled mosaics. We'll be treated to a very special & insightful tour inside the mosque with our guide, Ahmed... An amazing start to our journey!

We have a very special spot for lunch....in one of Casablanca's most loved and iconic restaurants.

After our leisurely break we'll head through to the ancient city of Fes. Our home, a beautifully restored summer palace, complete with a walled garden, ponds and a pool. Once there, relax & enjoy our beautiful surrounds. Owned by a French family and former antique dealer, each room is uniquely decorated with true charm.

Accommodation: Le Jardin des Biehns

Notes

Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner included

The morning we'll begin with a hearty breakfast in the beautiful gardens of our summer palace! And then brace yourself, as today we step back in time in the largest living medieval city in the world. As we wander well immerse ourselves in the ancient cobble-stoned medina, overflowing with history and architecture, pattern and design, visiting artisans, merchants and the ancient tanneries - which operate as they have for centuries.

A mystical labyrinth of colour, craftsmen and Moroccan wares, Fes is famed for its leather goods, ceramics and more, so shopping is definitely on today's agenda!

The garden is the perfect spot for evening sundowners, before a fun night in Fes this evening. Tonight we're in for a treat! We'll be warmly welcomed into the home of friends of ours, who live in the 'ville nouvelle' of Fes (the modern city). They're a gorgeous middle class family who are excited to share an evening of cross-cultural tales, and to chat over a beautiful home-prepared dinner. Such a fun, happy and enlightening evening amongst new friends!

RABAT

Today we leave behind the charms of Fes, and journey onward to the historic treasure of Meknes. A 17th century imperial city of Morocco, with magnificent gates and imposing walls that frame the old city. The medina awakens with activity with its bustling food markets, where stalls overflow with fragrant spices, fresh produce and traditional delicacies. A vibrant place to explore!

We have a very special spot for lunch.... taking in the stunning landscape of these rich and fertile plains, savouring the local produce & delicacies.

From there, we continue on to the picturesque capital of Morocco, Rabat. Perched on the Bouregreg River, where ancient architecture sits beautifully next to contemporary developments. We'll explore highlights such as the Mausoleum of Mohamed, the Hassan Tower, and take a wander through the gorgeous Kasbah des Oudayas and gardens.

Our home tonight is a beautiful villa located in the Embassy District, formerly a private home, built and owned by a French Family. Surrounded by lush gardens and a beautiful pool to enjoy, it's the perfect place to unwind.... and you may even meet the resident peacock! The terrace is an ideal spot for sundowners.

Breakfast & Lunch included

Our adventure continues today as we journey to the majestic Agafay desert, for the ultimate glamping stay! As we arrive, the mystique of the desert, and the backdrop of the High Atlas Mountains, is simply breath-taking.

Our gentle camels await, to lead us on a trek across our desert playground.... there's no better way to experience the amazing colours of the late afternoon sky!

As the light dims, the desert is softly illuminated by candles, lanterns and a sky full of stars... The perfect setting for a banquet, and tales around the bonfire, before falling into bed in your private tent.

Accommodation: Scarabeo Camp

Thursday · October 29th

Today we'll leave the dusty desert behind for the Atlantic coast. This drive takes us into Argan territory, the trees that are native to this region of Morocco.

A visit to a women's co-op will give insight into the harvesting and production of argan oil - Morocco's famed 'Moroccan Oil' - used for both culinary and cosmetic purposes.

From here it's only a short drive to the endearing coastal town of Essaouira. We have a special lunch spot planned, and then it's on to our home for the next three nights. Le Palazzo, a seaside gem, steeped in history but with a contemporary feel, is beautifully located with a fabulous rooftop terrace. As the sun sets over this stunning coastal spot, we'll cheers to another great day with a chilled drink in hand.

Accommodation: Le Palazzo

Notes

Breakfast & Lunch included

A leisurely breakfast is the perfect start to the day, before setting out to explore the cobbled laneways of the old medina.

After an orientation tour, there'll be loads of time to wander, explore and shop the many gorgeous boutiques, concept stores and traditional merchant shops. Essaouira is famous for silver jewellery, art and beautiful wood products from the local Thwuya trees, but you'll find lots of European inspired homewares and clothing dotted through the old city too!

Lunch is at one of our favourite spots, with an iconically Essaouira feel!

In the afternoon we'll visit a former almond warehouse located in the medina, to uncover a few gastronomic secrets! Of the pastry kind.

There's also the option to join a Ceramic Painting workshop.

As evening approaches, immerse yourself in the vibrant local music scene, or simply relax on our own terrace to sit and watch the world go by definitely a must to catch the sunset!

Sunday · November 1st

Another beautiful day and as our time on the coast has drawn to an end, our sights are set on the vibrant and enchanting 'red city' - Marrakech - an intoxicating melting pot of culture, tradition and cosmopolitan lifestyle.

Following a leisurely lunch at one of our new favourite spots, we approach the old medina, and wander into Marrakech's famous Djmaa el Fnaa, buzzing with energy. The square is alive with performers, artists, musicians, and snake charmers weaving their magic. A feast for the senses!

Then it's time to retreat into our own intimate oasis at the incredibly beautiful Riad Yasmine.

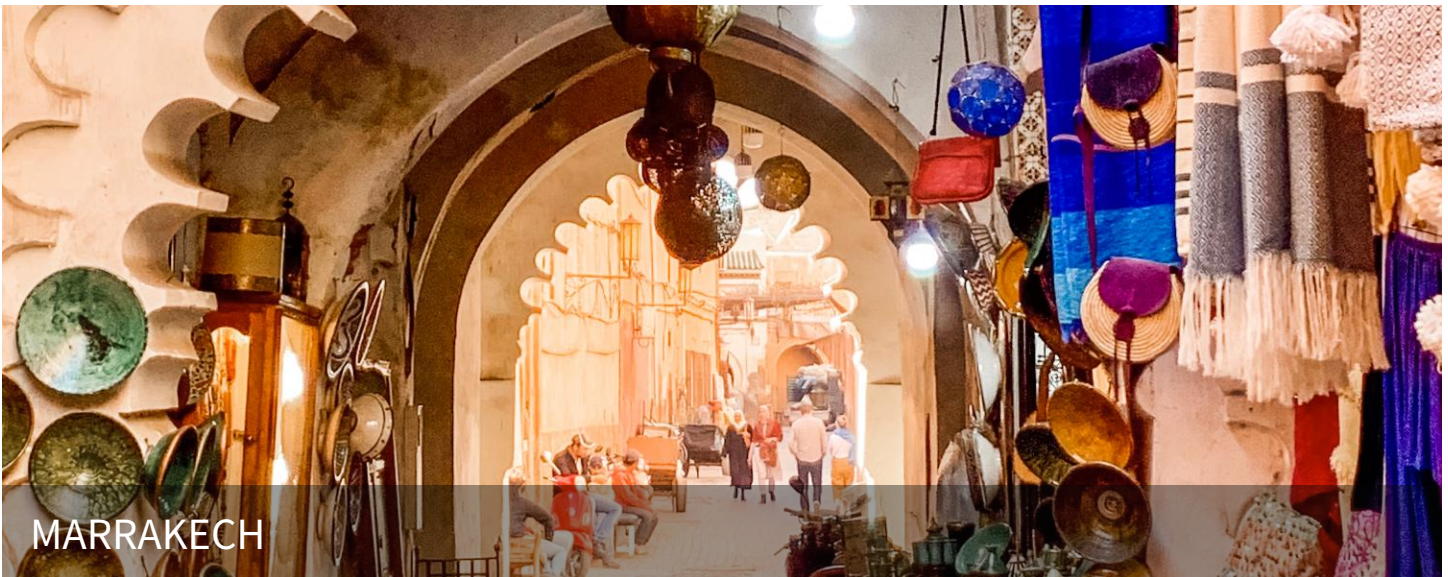

Tonight, we'll dine at one of our favourite neighbourhood restaurants - a beautiful, tiled courtyard and terrace, dotted with lemon trees and lanterns.

Monday · November 2nd

Time to hit Marrakech's famed souks, explore the vivacious medina, and meet talented artisans & enchanting traders. Our incredible guide will help us navigate these energetic, colourful alleyways that are an endless source of stimulation at every turn!

We'll learn about an iconic dish that is specific to Marrakech. Merchoui lamb is prepared and slow cooked in a unique way here in the alleyways of the medina - and is extremely delicious! We'll have an opportunity to sample this local specialty, fresh from the firepit!

Lunch today will be at another special spot, conveniently located in the medina.

And tonight! we'll share an exotic Moroccan feast in our own private home.

Tuesday · November 3rd

After breakfast, we'll visit the iconic Majorelle Gardens - a heavenly paradise awash with signature blue walls that was built by the French painter Jacques Majorelle, and then bought and restored by Yves St Laurent, and his partner Pierre Bergé! Next door is the intimate YSL Museum, a beautiful homage to the designer, housing a fabulous collection of artworks, designs and his famous couture. There are also some fabulous concept stores in this chic European precinct that are definitely worth a look!

This afternoon it's time to step in to the legendary La Maison Arabe Cooking School for a fabulous hands-on culinary adventure. Guided by expert Moroccan chefs we'll learn the secrets behind traditional recipes, and then savour the dishes we've created, celebrating the rich flavours of Moroccan cuisine!

HIGH ATLAS MOUNTAINS

Today's drive takes us towards the spectacular High Atlas Mountains. Before reaching our destination we'll be welcomed for lunch by a very special Berber family, in their home overlooking the valley. This is a beautiful opportunity to experience local life, feel the warmth of the locals, and savour true farm to table cuisine, home-prepared especially for us!

After our long lunch it's a very short drive to the picturesque mountain side retreat, Kasbah Bab Ourika, which is our home for the next two nights.

The stunning Kasbah boasts chic interiors, gorgeous, lush gardens, and the most breathtaking views overlooking the Ourika Valley and Atlas Mountains.

Relax in the divine surrounds and settle in for some blissful downtime.
